On Sept. 19, Celebrate One Year-a! Collect Your Lire!
D'Amico's in the Heights has 15,000 birthday gifts for diners

It was one year ago Sept. 19 the father-daughter team of Nash D'Amico and Brina D'Amico Donaldson opened the doors of their second D'Amico's Italian Market Café, this one at 2802 White Oak in the growing South Heights entertainment district.

And when did any true-blooded Italian pass up to celebrate a birthday in the family?

On Wednesday, September 19, the one-year-old restaurant will be gifting all those who dine there with a free, candle-lit cannoli, a $1.99 frozen bellini and, hold onto your pasta on this – a certificate worth 15,000 Lire!

All day for lunch and dinner, everyone who dines in the restaurant will become part of the celebration. The full-size cannoli will be presented to each table (one per table). Each customer over 21 can purchase greatly discounted frozen bellinis, and each customer 18 years old and older will be presented with a certificate worth 15,000 lire, Italy's former currency prior to its switching over to the Euro.

And where lire may not be in circulation in Italy any more, this 15,000 (approximately $9.74) can be used in a future visit against any bill $25 or more. These gifts are available to dine-in customers only.

And definitely expect balloons and hoopla.

The birthday celebrating will be at the D'Amico's Italian Market Café at 2802 White Oak in the Heights. For more information, call 713-868-3400, or check the web site, www.damico-cafe.com.
