On Valentine's at least, No Need to Shop Around
Mama done told you, go to Ouisie's or The Bird & The Bear

When Smokey Robinson was singing how his mother told him to shop around, she was talking about settling on a wife, not a place to take a Valentine's date.

She'd be telling him less is more when it comes to that. It was with less shopping in mind that two restaurants, Ouisie's (Serving Mother Nature at Her Best)," and The Bird & The Bear both created Valentine's options that take care of everything on Thursday, Feb. 14.

First, neither location is creating a single menu that limits the options. Order from the regular menu or choose from an extra plentiful list of Valentine evening specials. Even better, both restaurants will take care of flowers and bubbles to boot.

Call ahead and reserve a table for two, then choose between two red roses in a glass vase ($20), six roses in a vase ($50) or a stunning dozen in all ($70). In addition, order a bottle of Nicolas Feuillatte Rose Champagne ($70), and your evening is nailed.

As Smokey's momma said, "A- gotta get yourself a bargain son …"

Minimum 48-hour advance reservations are required.

Ouisie's Table is located at 3939 San Felipe and open for breakfast, lunch and dinner seven days a week. For information and reservations call 713-528-2264 or email ouisies@ouisiestable.com.

Located at 2810 Westheimer, The Bird & The is open seven days a week for lunch and dinner. For reservations, call 713-528-2473 or visit www.thebirdandthebearbistro.com. Valet parking is available.
