A Great Italian Dinner Before the Concert? Quattro was Born This Way
Restaurant offers Lady Gaga Concert prix-fix dinner, free parking, wine

HOUSTON…… Lady Gaga is coming to Toyota Center Houston on Thursday, Jan. 31, and Executive Chef Maurizio Ferrarese of nearby Quattro at Four Seasons Houston Hotel is inviting everyone to come fashionably early at the restaurant before the concert.

The menu includes raw meat – steak tartar, in case you're still looking for something to wear.

Called the Pre-Ga-Go Dinner, the offer includes free parking (you can walk to Toyota Center from there), a three-course dinner for $49 per person plus tax and gratuity and a free glass of wine after the concert ends. The free parking alone makes this an incredible savings offer.

The Pre-Ga-Go Menu includes steak tartar – in honor of Lady Gaga' famous raw meat dress -, a limited main-course selection and a dessert. After the concert, return to Vinoteca (just next door to Quattro on the third floor) and enjoy a free glass of wine by showing your concert ticket. Reservations are strongly recommended.

Hungry for music but not a full dinner? Come to the hotel's Lobby Lounge for drinks and bites then walk to the concert. (Parking is $4). The bar is offering Gaga Light for two ($30). It's a serving of steak tartar with quail egg, caperberries and smoked olive oil and rustic bread croutons.

Quattro is located in the Four Seasons Hotel Houston is located at 1300 Lamar at San Jacinto. For reservations or information, visit www.quattrorestauranthouston.com or call 713-276-4700.
