Two Choices for Christmas Eve

The Bird & The Bear and Ouisie's Table both open

HOUSTON – For those trying to make a decision about Christmas Eve (it's too late to be deciding between naughty and nice to do you any good), popular restaurants Ouisie's Table and nearby The Bird and the Bear aren't going to make it easier.

On Sunday, Dec. 24, both restaurants will be open and serving special a la carte Holiday menus as well as specialty drinks and offering live music in the dining rooms.

At Ouisie's, 3939 San Felipe, there'll be a full menu of special dishes in eclectic Southern style, as the restaurant has become famous for. All this will be served under the approving gaze of Miss Ruby, the 54-year-old red dress which has reigned over the dining room of Ouisie's Table Restaurant every year for the past 16 years from Thanksgiving to Valentine's. She's back for her 17th.

The Bird & The Bear restaurant at 2810 Westheimer is offering a very appealing a la carte menu made especially for all those who want to try its more adventurous notions as depicted in the logo of the exploring bear and curious blue bird. With dishes from Morocco, Spain, France and all around the Gulf Coast, the offerings will be everything but dull.

Both restaurants will have live music, and both require reservations.

Located at 2810 Westheimer, The Bird & The Bear is open seven days a week for lunch and dinner. For reservations or information about The Bird and The Bear, call 713-528-2473 or visit www.thebirdandthebearbistro.com.
